Creative Music Calendar

JULY 2009

about this thing

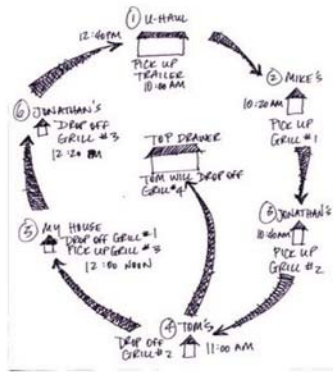

The Transbay Creative Music Calendar is a volunteer-produced free monthly journal for non-commercial creative new music in the San Francisco Bay Area. In addition to our comprehensive listing of upcoming events, we publish articles and reviews about local music and the people who create it. We talk about a wide range of modern music, including: experimental, improvised, noise, electronic, free-jazz, outrock, 21st century compositions, and sonic art. Each month, 1,000 copies of the Transbay are mailed to individuals and hand-delivered to over 45 performance venues and public locations throughout the Bay Area.

NOTE FROM BEAU CASEY

rock found
 east oakland

It's saturday night on Foothill Boulevard, a stone's throw from the Mills campus. A sandwich board in front of a nondescript building advertises entry to the multi-purpose art venue Flux 53. Topping the bill is Boneless Children, a well-polished power trio, auditioning tunes from their soon to be released album. Next is Colossus Explosion, a monkey suited duo bridging experimental and punk. The opening act was the live looping Shovelman. Some of the ceiling panels are missing, and a solitary oriental lamp hangs illuminates the stage here on the frontlines of culture. ❖
